

OOOONGA-BOOONGA

-What did Carl say before he ran off? We call him Carl-his native name is about a sentence long.

"Big cloud, more black, more black. Wind God go crazy mad!
Rain God go fight. Smash smash boom boom. Bigger Fight then cuz Ocean God he plenty pissed off! Many peoples drowned. Everybody house fly like drunk bird." -All that's his quaint way of saying Category Five Hurricane.

-Well, I'll go by the science, thank you so very much. All indicators point to it not even making Category 1. Much ado among the cowardly natives but it's all Carl's oooonga- booonga.

Millie-We have wd from Islands that body of Dr Aspenhaus has washed ashore.

*Give family mo for getting it back here, funeral arrangements, etc.
And then phone everybody for reading of will. Come to think of it, I'll be in court the rest of this month, maybe longer, so set up reading in about 2-3 mos. Mark it in red on my calendar-getting forgetful in my old age.*
